CLUB ONE CONCIERGE

Shan Davis is the President & Founder of Club One Concierge, Austin's only full-service house management company that serves as one trusted resource for a wide range of responsibilities.

As the undisputed "Chief of Everything," she brings new meaning to the role of House Manager and has carved out a niche with high-interest clientele who depend on her team for nearly everything imaginable.

Since 2010, Club One Concierge has been helping families elevate and simplify their lives by offering a comprehensive suite of house management services. As a hybrid between a deep-touch personal assistant and property manager, the Club One team has proven to be a trustworthy, invaluable resource managing the busiest of families with the most challenging large-scale home operations.

Shan has an innate talent for understanding clients' needs, lifestyle and household functionality. These qualities have enabled her to create refined, highly efficient environments for discerning clientele.

Shan is a Texas Native and has lived and worked in Hong Kong, Sydney, London, Washington DC and Mallorca. She enjoys live music, hiking, Austin's food scene and spending time with her family.
